Introduction

Hi, my name is Youza Rauf. I'm a Product Designer at Idenfo and am currently conducting a research for the quality of security services in Karachi. A recent study carried out by the Karachi police and shared with the media indicated that the available strength of 26,847 law enforcers for the city is much below the requirement and a policy in this regard is required to be reviewed for the vibrant city of 22 million people.
